

PPS SENIOR SECONDARY SCHOOL, BRAHAMAN MAJRA

PPS Celebrated Basant Panchami

Basant Panchami was celebrated with great joy and enthusiasm at PPS Senior Secondary School, Brahman Majra on 23 January 2026. The festival marks the arrival of spring and is dedicated to Goddess Saraswati, the goddess of knowledge, wisdom, and learning.

The school campus was beautifully decorated with yellow flowers, charts, and rangoli, symbolizing prosperity and positivity. Students and teachers wore yellow attire, which added charm and vibrancy to the celebration.

The programme began with a prayer and Saraswati Vandana, seeking blessings for wisdom and success. Students actively participated in various cultural activities such as poems, speeches, group songs, and dance performances, highlighting the importance of Basant Panchami and Indian culture.

The celebration was conducted under the able guidance of our respected Principal, Mr. Arun Kumar Katoch, who addressed the students and motivated them to value education, discipline, and Indian traditions. Our esteemed Managing Director, Mr. Kamal Kumar, also conveyed his best wishes and encouraged students to work hard with dedication to achieve success in life.

On this occasion, Senior Teacher Mrs. Ashu Khanna delivered an inspiring speech among the students. She explained the significance of Basant Panchami and emphasized the importance of knowledge, moral values, and respect for teachers in shaping a bright future.

Teachers further explained the significance of the festival and encouraged students to respect knowledge and learning. The celebration created an atmosphere of happiness, devotion, and cultural pride among everyone.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks. The celebration was a great success and left a memorable impact on the students.

Regards

PPS SENIOR SECONDARY SCHOOL
BRAHMAN MAJRA