

PUNJAB PUBLIC SENIOR SECONDARY SCHOOL, BRAHMAN MAJRA.

Dated- 2 May 2026

Sexual Harassment Awareness Workshop was organized in Punjab Public Senior Secondary School, Brahman Majra to educate students about personal safety, dignity, and respect. The workshop aimed to create awareness about inappropriate behavior, legal rights, and ways to protect oneself.

The program was conducted under the guidance of our respected Principal, Prof. Arun Kumar Katoch, and was well coordinated by Mrs. Jyoti. The valuable support of Mrs. Karamjeet and Mrs. Kulwinder played an important role in making the workshop successful.

The session was attended by students and teachers with great enthusiasm. The resource person explained the meaning of sexual harassment in a simple and student-friendly manner. Students were made aware of different forms of harassment, including physical, verbal, and online misconduct.

The importance of speaking up and reporting such incidents without fear was strongly emphasized. Students were guided about safety measures such as being aware of their surroundings, saying “No” firmly in uncomfortable situations, and reporting incidents to trusted adults or school authorities.

The workshop also informed students about their rights and the importance of maintaining a safe and respectful environment. Interactive discussions and question-answer sessions made the workshop engaging and informative.

The program concluded with a vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to the Principal, coordinator, teachers, and students for their active participation. The workshop proved to be highly beneficial in spreading awareness and promoting a safe school environment.
